LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little girl three years old and I would like for you to bring me a new doll and a dress and a hat and a comb and brush to fix my hair and a table to put my dishes on and two chairs and some mechanical toys to play with and candy, nuts and oranges and fruit. Don't forget my grandparents and friends. Your girl, Margaret Wilson.
 454 Mechanic St.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little girl seven years old and live on Chestnut street in Adamston. Will you please bring me a doll, a doll carriage, piano, bed room suit, doll bed and some candy and nuts. I go to school and have never been tardy or missed a day. So you see Santa I deserve to be treated pretty good. You will find my stockings hanging on the dining room mantel. So this is all for this Christmas. Good bye.
 Sibyl Schutte.

Dear Santa Claus—I want you to bring me a doll with brown hair and black eyes and a doll bear and a teddy bear, a teddy bear, a toy donkey that runs on wheels and a sled and a trunk to pack my clothes in when I go away and some candy and nuts and fruit and O K chewing gum. Bring my friend Mattie a ring. I'll be your girl until after Christmas and then I am mamma's. Don't forget baby Hiram, he wants a Ted. Maud Worstell.
 Point Comfort.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little boy five years old and will please bring me an engine and a top and French harp, and I would like a little book to learn my A B C's in and some candy and nuts and oranges and bananas. From your little boy, Herbert Springston.

Dear Santa Claus—I thought I would write and tell you what I want for Christmas. Please bring me a wagon and sled, a little train and some candy and nuts and a new suit of clothes and don't forget my brother Buster, he is in Chicago. From your little friend, Robert Emmet Albright.
 7 Baltimore St.

Dear Santa Claus—I will tell you what I want for Christmas. I want a table, a doll and candy and nuts and oranges and a new dress. Please do not forget my little friend Georgia Fraser. Good bye.
 Lucile Albright.
 7 Baltimore St.

Dear Santa Claus—You have been so kind to me before, I would like for you to bring me for this Christmas a pair of gloves, story book, fire crackers and any kind of toys you may wish to bring me and some candy and nuts. From your little friend, Clarence Springston.

Dear Santa Claus—Please bring me a few things, two dollies, a bed for them to sleep in, a carriage to ride them in, a set of blocks for Billy and I to build houses with, set of dishes, plenty of fruit, but not much candy. Now don't forget Billy I can't tell you what he wants, but bring him something nice. Good bye.
 Mary Mildred Kinnaird.
 409 High St.

Dear Santa Claus—Please bring me an express wagon, a pop gun, engine and cars, an automobile, a slat and pencil, a bug that will run, a set of soldiers and a boat. And please bring Nellie a doll that goes to sleep, a doll house, a teddy bear, a set of dishes, a set of furniture, a red hair ribbon and a little story. We are trying to be good children. Your little boy and girl, George and Nellie Griswold.

P. S.—If you don't have these things bring me anything you want to. Please don't forget papa and mamma, and Mr. Terby.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little boy and I don't go to school and I will get my mother to write for me, I want a horn and a drum, a train of cars, a ball, a teddy bear and a rifle. From your little boy, Frank Hursey.
 134 Linden Ave.

P. S.—Please don't forget my little chum, Robert Martin, he lives at 629 West Main St.

Dear Santa—Please bring me a good boy all the year and I am going to school and I have not very much time to write. I want you to bring me a new pair of shoes and a hat and an air gun and some shots for it, and bring me a football and automobile and some fire crackers and nuts and candy, and do not forget mamma and bring her something, and a Christmas tree and some holly wreaths. Goodbye, from your little boy, Harry Fretwell.
 I live on Third street, No. 40.

Dear Santa—Please bring me a magic lantern and an air gun. I am a good little boy and will take good care of them. Your friend, Frank Hull.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little girl nearly eight years old and would like some nice Christmas presents. I would like a nice big doll and some postcards with your picture on them and a pair of gloves and a new dress and candy and nuts. I am a good little girl. Eva Gale Jaynes.
 Bridgeport, W. Va.

Dear Santa Claus—I will drop you a few lines and will tell you what I want you to bring me. I am a little boy 5 years old and I go to school every day. I am not a very good boy, but will promise you I will be a good boy if you will visit me and bring me a nice story book and some candy and nuts and please bring my little sister Opa's sled and a new hair ribbon and a story book also, for if you don't she is very for mine. This is all for this time. Loyal Swisher.

Dear Santa Claus—Please bring me a pair of skates, sled, candy and nuts and a drum. Don't forget me. Ray Johnston.
 Point Comfort.

Dear Santa Claus—Please bring me a real gun, boots, an automobile and a train of cars that runs on a track, blocks and a wagon and anything else that you want to bring me. James Barnett.
 South Chestnut St.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little boy four years old and I want a Christmas tree and a set of tools and a train and a truck and an engine that runs when you wind it up. And please bring me some candy, fruit and nuts. From your little boy, James Mills.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little girl five years old and live at 113 Flynn street. Please bring me a new dress and a red hair ribbon and a blue hair ribbon and bring me a pair of stockings, and candy and nuts, and don't forget mamma and papa. From your little girl, Mabel Lafferty.

Dear Santa Claus—I want a tricycle and bracelet and a nice box of candy and some nuts, and dear Santa I want you to come to church this Christmas and bring your wife along. Bewlah Lawman.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little girl six years old and I want a sled and a doll carriage, a sled and a rocking chair, a new dress and a new coat and a new hat, and a story book named Robinson Crusoe, Jack and the Bean Stock and Rip Van Winkle, some candy and nuts. From your little girl, Hattie Cornwell.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a nice little girl and study and practice hard and I think you ought to bring me something. I want an air gun and some shot and a good sled, and I think that is all. Don't forget my little sister Helen and brothers. Ervine Knox.
 P. S.—Don't forget a football.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little boy six years old and would like to have an air gun and a story book and a sled and don't forget my little brother Drancer, he wants a coat and a teddy bear and some candy and nuts and oranges. From your little friend, Caper Jeffrey.
